To use the metric, complete the general rubric, and one of the management rubric/technical rubric. Calculate percentage of maximum achievable score. As a guidance, a score of 70% or higher should be considered a passing score.